MUNICIPAL PROPERTY CORPORATION BONDS

Summary

DESCRIPTION OF MUNICIPAL PROPERTY CORPORATION BONDS

Description

Municipal Property Corporation (“MPC”) is a non-profit corporation created by the Town as a financing mechanism for the purpose of financing the construction or acquisition of Town capital improvement projects. The MPC is governed by a board of directors consisting of citizens from the community appointed by the Town Council. MPC bonds are secured by excise taxes or other undesignated general fund revenues. These bonds may be issued without a vote of the citizens and without limitation as to interest rate or amount.

Most municipalities in Arizona, including the Town of Fountain Hills, have utilized non-profit corporations to finance major public projects. A significant advantage of the MPC structure is that certain municipal capital needs can be financed without regard to, or effect on, statutory municipal bonding approvals.

Under this method of financing, the Town acquires the desired facilities from the non-profit corporation by means of a lease-purchase contract. In order to obtain the funds necessary for the construction of the facilities, the MPC issues its own bonds. The facility financed with the MPC bonds is then leased to the Town for lease-rental payments which mirror the semi-annual interest and annual principal payments on the MPC bonds.

Under this arrangement, the Town pledges certain of its unrestricted fines and forfeitures, license and permit fees, transaction privilege taxes, other transaction privilege, excise and business taxes, franchise fees and taxes, lease and rental payments and recreation and community program fees which the Town now or in the future imposes and collects, and all State shared sales taxes and all State shared income taxes collected and allocated or apportioned, now or hereafter, to the Town by the State of Arizona or any political subdivision thereof, or by any other governmental unit or agency and which are not required by State of Arizona law, rule or regulation to be expended for other purposes, such as motor vehicle fuel, donations, miscellaneous and sponsorships. The use of ad valorem (property) taxes for this purpose is specifically prohibited.

Similar to Revenue bonds, MPC bonds would pay slightly higher interest rates than a GO bond issue.

Debt Limitation

Although there is no statutory limitation as to the amount of bonds the MPC may issue, there are legal limitations through the covenants in the trust indenture.
